

Developing a Male-Focused CBD Brand & Putting it on a High Note

Releasing a new CBD brand to the market focused on male mental & physical health, DGTLsuite needed to develop a brand and marketing roadmap to break the "grass ceiling."

Entering as a new brand in an evolving industry the CBD retail brand based in Anaheim, California, worked with modern medicine to find the best quality herbal supplements to support and maintain optimal well-being. The brand's focus is men's mental health and delivers value by offering CBD-based wellness products in collaboration with clinical experts. The client wanted to start the conversation surrounding men's overall physical health and help men cope with everyday stress and social pressures.

Logo Development: DGTLsuite utilized the hexagon within the CBD molecule to symbolizes the brand's quest to find balance on a molecular level.
